IRELAND.

A ſuccinct Account of a Set of Miſcreants in the Counties of Waterford, Cork, Limerick, and Tipperary, called Bougheleen Bawins (i. e. White Boys) the Children of Sive Oultaugh (i. e. Sarah Ulſter) being an Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman reſiding in Youghall, to his Son in London.

THEIR firſt Riſe was in October laſt, and they have ever ſince been increaſing; they then, and all along, pretended their aſſembling was to do Juſtice to the Poor, by reſtoring the ancient Commons, and redreſſing other Grievances; for which Purpoſe they always aſſembled in the Night, with their Shirts over their Cloaths, which cauſed them to be called White Boys; their Number in the County of Waterford, is computed to 6 or 700. They have done infinite Damage in the County, levelling Ditches, and Stone Walls, rooting up Orchards, &c.

On the 11th ult. I ſaw ſeveral Ditches they had levelled, Part of an Orchard deſtroyed, and two Graves they had dug, on the Road between Clonmell and Coppoquin; the Graves were to hold thoſe that did not comply with their Orders. Some Time before this, they came by Night into the Town (a large Village) of Coppoquin, where is a Horſe Barrack, drew up in the Green near the Barrack, fired ſeveral Shot, and marched by the Centry with their Piper playing, The Lad with the white Cockade.

The 13th I ſaw a Bier, near Affane Church, which they had cauſed two Days before to be made, to carry People alive, and bury them in thoſe Graves. An Eſquire at Coppoquin, when a Batchelor, agreed with a Peaſant for the Uſe of his Daughter, for which he paſſed the Peaſant his Bond for 100l. but on the Eſquire's entering the matrimonial State, he was compelled to take up his Bond; Sive wrote to the Peaſant to refund the Money, upon Pain of having his Tongue drawn thro' his under Jaw, and faſtened with a Skewer.

On the 14th they aſſembled at Liſmore (between Coppoquin and Tallow) poſted an Advertiſement on the Door of the Poſt-Office, requiring the Inhabitants to have their Houſes illuminated, and a certain Number of Horſes bridled and ſaddled ready for them to mount againſt next Night, which was complied with. On the Night of the 15th they mounted, went to Tallow-Bridge (near Tallow) where they levelled the Ditches of ſeveral fine Parks, and cut down a Number of full-grown Aſh-trees (Knee high, to ſave them the Trouble of ſtooping) belonging to Mr. K——y, of the ſaid Place; they then proceeded to Tallow; the Horſe marched to the Weſt Bridge, the Commander called out, Halt; to the Right about; and then proceeded into the Market-place in a ſmart Trot. They broke open the Marſhalſea, diſcharged the Debtors, ſent an Advertiſement to D— y F—s, the Juſtice, to take ſeveral Copies, and ſee them poſted up; that a Pot or Waine of Turf ſhould be ſold for 6d. (Half the uſual Price) 20 Ounces of freſh Butter, 4d. Potatoes, 2s. 8d. Halfpenny per Barrel, &c. They alſo ſent a Letter to him, to ſend for the Man who built a Cock-pit for him 12 Months ago, to pay him Part of the Money he with-held from him, and alſo a Guinea he promiſed him for Expedition; all which he tamely complied with, though a Troop and an Half of Dragoons were quartered very near him.

On the 22d they came to the Ferry-point, oppoſite this Town, levelled the Ditches of a ſmall Park oppoſite the back Window of my Parlour, and a Muſket Shot off the Town; they made a large Fire, dug a Grave, and erected a Gallows over it, fired ſeveral Shot, and at each Diſcharge huzza'd; ſent ſeveral threatening Letters to the Inhabitants of this Town, in particular to M——w P——r, an active Juſtice, that they would pull down his Houſe, and tear him to Pieces; that on the 25th they would pull down a very handſome Houſe (within a Mile of this Town) which they ſaid was built on Commons.

The Militia Arms were delivered to the Proteſtant Inhabitants, who being joined by two Companies of Foot from the Barracks, marched through the Town, and made a handſome Appearance; 70 Men mounted Guard that Night, a Party of which patrolled every two Hours to the ſaid Houſe: No Attempt was made. One D——s C——r, of Tallow, a Comber, came here and endeavoured to inliſt another of the ſame Trade under Sive's Banner: He was apprehended and lodged in the Barracks, and on the 26th he was ſent in the Revenue cruiſing Boat to Cork, to prevent a Reſcue by Land; on the 27th P—k R—h, formerly a Smith to a Troop of Horſe, who lived near Coppoquin, was apprehended here, ſuppoſed to have made Part of their Levelling-tools; at the ſame Time he gave Information againſt ſeveral to M——w P——r, Eſq; he was ſent to Cork by the ſame Conveyance as C——r.

The 29th, the Ditches of Tirkelling and Ballydaniel, near Tallow, belonging to M——P——, were levelled; 500 Men in a Day would not repair the Damage.

The 30th, 4 Pieces of Iron Cannon, taken out of our Fort, were placed at the North and South Gates, charged with Cartridge Shot.

The 31ſt, ſeveral Alarms.

April the 1ſt, between 7 and 8 in the Evening the Alarm was beat; after that, to Arms, a falſe Alarm being given, that the White Boys were within Half a Mile of the North Gate; the Town in an Uproar; by 9 all quiet; about one in the Morning the Mayor, Mr. ——, and ſeveral other Gentlemen, in Number 41, well mounted and accoutred, with each a Soldier behind him, went from this to Tallow, 8 Miles diſtant, and before Sun-riſe ſeized 11 White Boys, whom they brought to this Town.

The 2d, they marched them through it in their Uniforms, with Drums beating, Fifes playing, &c.

The 3d, two Brothers of the Town of Tallow, by Name K——, Shoemakers and Proteſtants, gave Information, upon which the Inhabitants, together with the Collector, and ſeveral Revenue Officers, equipped as before, went to Tallow, and Places adjacent, and brought to Town 13 White Boys, and lodged a Lieutenant Colonel in Tallow Barracks; his Name is Ob—n. It is ſaid he has been ſome Time in the French Service. There was another Party with the Army from Cork, met at Youghall, and had ſeized about 25 at Liſmore and Places adjacent; the Cork Informations were from P——R——, called Adjutant to the White Boys.

A Copy of the Oath taken by all Perſons who enter into Sive Oultaugh's Society.

"I do hereby ſolemnly and ſincerely ſwear, that I will not make known any Secret now given me, or hereafter may be given, to any one in the World, except to a ſworn Perſon belonging to the Society called White Boys, or otherwiſe Sive Oultaugh's Children.

"Furthermore I ſwear that I will be ready at an Hour's warning (if poſſible) being properly ſummoned by any of the Officers, Serjeants, or Corporals belonging to my Company.

"Furthermore I ſwear I will not wrong any of the Company I belong to, of the Value of one Shilling, nor ſuffer it to be done by others, without acquainting them thereof.

"Furthermore I ſwear I will not make known in any Shape whatſoever, to any Perſon that does not belong to us, the Name or Names of any of our Fraternity, but particularly the Names of our reſpective Officers.

Laſtly, I ſwear that I will not drink of any Liquor whatſoever, whilſt on Duty, without the Conſent of one or other of the Officers, Serjeants or Corporals, and that we will be loyal one to the other as far as in our Power lies."

Cork, April 8. We are informed amidſt the Ringleaders taken, is the Chief of the White Boys, or Levellers in Ireland. This deſperate Perſon was once a Franciſcan Friar, who had abjured his Religion to gain Poſſeſſion of a ſmall Eſtate; which having diſſipated, he became a Tool of the French Miniſtry. It is aſſerted, that by the apprehending of him, the Riſing will be entirely quelled.

The Rioters who have appeared for ſome Days paſt in this Country, are entirely quelled; and 27 of them, who have been moſt active, are committed to our Goals. We expect a ſpecial Commiſſion ſpeedily from England, in order to proceed to the trying of them.

A Declaration has been publiſhed in the riotous Counties, importing, that all Natives hereafter found in Arms, or aſſembling themſelves in a riotous Manner, upon any Pretext whatever, would be looked upon, and treated as Rebels, and that no Quarter ſhould be given them.

Since our laſt about 50 of the Levellers, or White Boys, have been taken in and about Liſmore and Coppoquin, and are ſent to Waterford Goal. Among this Number is one of their Chiefs, who aſſumed the Character of Queen Sive. On Sunday Night laſt a Party of the Army and Militia of Youghall made another Expedition into the Country, and took 12 Priſoners, whom they have confined in the Barrack of that Town, where there are now 23 of the Queen's Children in Durance.

Dublin, April 13. By Letters of good Authority from the Counties of Waterford, Cork, and Tipperary, we have certain Intelligence, that a Merchant at Dungarven diſburſed the Sum of 15000 l. to a Perſon now in Cuſtody, who was ſtiled Muſter-maſter and Paymaſter General to the White Boys, and who from Time to Time diſtributed the above Sum amongſt them. And it further appears, that two other Perſons now in Cuſtody have French Commiſſions, one as Lieutenant Colonel, and the other as Adjutant. All the Accounts from Munſter agree, that the Deſigns of theſe Miſcreants were of a much more dangerous Nature than we were at firſt taught to believe they were.

Clonmell, April 14. Laſt Monday eight of the White Boys were taken in a Cave near Cloghen, by a Party of Lord Drogheda's Light Horſe. This Cave went a great Way under Ground, down into which they went by a Ladder, and then took the Ladder away. One of the Light Horſe ſuſpecting, from the Appearance of this Place, that ſome of the Levellers might have been below, inſiſted upon his being let down by a Rope, with a Caſe of Piſtols in his Hand; and upon his landing below, he moſt undauntedly unkenneled eight of thoſe Wretches, who inſtantly ſurrendered Priſoners.

Extract of a Letter from Ennis, dated April 11.

"As to the Levellers, or White Boys, the Goals of Limerick, Clonmell, Youghall and Waterford, are crowded with them. Lord Drogheda's Light Horſe are the beſt Troops ever known for ridding a Country of ſuch Vermin. We this Day received the News, that Lady Shelagh Miſkell is taken, and turns out to be a brawny Prieſt, whoſe Name is Kelly. They are the moſt wicked Set I ever heard of, and hope to have the Pleaſure of ſeeing a Number of them hanged. It is thought they had other Views, beſide houghing and levelling. They expected (as has paſſed among them) a Perſon from abroad to head them; and if that had happened, he would, I fear, be in as bad a Way."

Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente,

THAT an Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that he will repreſent to his Majeſty the Senſe of this Houſe, that the Entertainments and Appointments of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland are become inadequate to the Dignity of that high Office, and to the Expence with which it is and ought to be supported: And that it is the humble Desire of this House, that his Majesty will be graciously pleased to grant such an Augmentation to the Entertainment of the Lord Lieutenant for the Time being, which, with the present Allowance, will, in the Whole, amount to the annual Sum of Sixteen Thousand Pounds. And to express that Satisfaction which we feel, at the pleasing Hope, that this just and necessary Augmentation should take Place during the Administration of a Chief Governor, whose many great and amiable Qualities, whose wise and happy Administration in the Government of this Kingdom, have universally endeared him to the People of Ireland.

E. STIRLING, H. ALCOCK, } Cl. Dom. Com.

Copy of the Answer of the Lord Lieutenant to the Address of the House of Commons, February 27, 1762.

I SHALL take the first Opportunity of laying before his Majesty the Sense of the House of Commons contained in this Address. I enter fully into the truly liberal Motives, which have influenced your Conduct in this unanimous Resolution. That you are solicitous not only to support his Majesty's Government, but to support it with becoming Grandeur and Magnificence, reflects the highest Honour on yourselves; that you have chosen the Time of my Administration, that you have distinguished my Person as the Object of your Favour, reflects the highest Credit on me; and I must ever consider this Event as one of the most fortunate and honourable Circumstances of my Life. Whatever Merit you ascribe to me in the Government of this Kingdom, in Reality arises from your own Conduct, though your Partiality would transfer it to mine. Your Unanimity has first created this Merit, and your Liberality would now reward it.

I am sensible of the Obligation you confer: And I can in no way properly demonstrate my Sense of it, but by being as I am, unalterably determined to implore his Majesty, that I may be permitted to enjoy it pure and unmixed with the lucrative Advantage you propose should attend it. This affectionate Address is intended as an Honour to me: That Intention has on your part been fully answered; to make it truly honourable, something is still necessary on mine. It becomes me to vie with the Generosity of Parliament, and to kindle up an Emulation of Sentiment. It has been my Duty, in the Course of this Session, to propose large Plans of public Expence, and to promise an Attention to public OEconomy; and I could not without Pain submit that the Establishment, already burthened at my Recommendation, should be still farther charged, for my own particular Profit.

But while I consider myself at Liberty to sacrifice my private Interests to my private Feelings, I must consider myself as bound likewise to consult, in Compliance with your enlarged and liberal Sentiments, the future Support of the Station in which I am placed, to the Dignity of which, the Emoluments are, as you represent them, inadequate. I shall transmit, therefore, the Sense of the House of Commons, that the Augmentation which your Generosity has proposed, may, if his Majesty shall think fit, be made to the Establishment of my Successor, when he shall enter on the Government of this Kingdom, and when it is probable, the Circumstances of this Country may be better able to support such additional Burthen. But while I must decline accepting any Part of the Profits, I rejoice to charge myself with the whole of the Obligation: Abundantly happy, if, when I shall hereafter be removed from this high, and thro' your Favour desirable Situation, I should leave it, thro' your Liberality, augmented in it's Emoluments, and by my Inability not diminished in it's Reputation.

LONDON,

April 15. A Letter from on board his Majesty's Ship Repulse, dated off the Isle Granade, February 1, 1762, says: "Last Wednesday being at Anchor in one of the Bays of this Island, our Commander, Capt. Allen, sent on Shore 17 Men to cut Wood for the Ship's Use, which they did that Day without being molested, or giving any Offence to the People of the Island; but sending the same Number of Men a second Time, immediately on the Boat's landing, a Volley of small Arms was fired upon our People from among the Bushes, which killed or wounded the greatest Part of them, who had not Time to take to their Arms before about 40 French rushed upon them, and notwithstanding their surrendering and asking Quarter, it was refused, the French continuing to cut and hack them in a most barbarous Manner, particularly our Midshipman, who commanded the Boat, and had received a Shot in the Body, and who was begging for Mercy on his Knees, when one of the Villains struck him on the Face with a Cutlass, and cut one of his Cheeks almost off, and instantly another fired his Piece at him, and the Ball of it went through his Hat; but this not doing the Business intended, he received a most violent Blow on the Stomach with the Butt End of a Musket. The rest of our Boats had now reached the Shore, and the French made off into the Woods.

"On the Crews of these Boats landing, a most shocking Spectacle presented itself! Six of their Shipmates they found dead on the Beach, barbarously butchered with the Axes that were intended to cut Wood with; and on their going a little farther, they found the Midshipman, and three others, dying of their Wounds; the other seven we have no Account of, and it is feared they have suffered the same Fate.

"Such Cruelty from an Enemy whom we have always treated with the greatest Lenity, I hope will not go unpunished."

BOSTON, June 14.

Last Friday Morning, about One o'Clock, a Fire broke out at the Bake House of Mr. George Bray, at the upper End of Williams's Court, in Cornhill, which had got to such a Head before it was discovered, that the same, together with his Dwelling-House, all the Furniture, Bedding, Cloaths, &c. with about 150 Barrels of Flour, were wholly consumed; the Family having but just Time to save themselves;—the Fire being communicated to most of the Dwelling-Houses, Barns, and Out-Houses, in said Court, with other Buildings contiguous, they were soon in Flames;—the Place where the Fire began was confined, and difficult of Access, but the Engines of the Town, together with those of Charlestown and Castle William, which kindly assisted, being in excellent Order for playing, and the Fire Officers and Inhabitants, encouraged by his Excellency the Governor, exerting themselves to a great Degree, a Stop was put, thro' the Favour of Divine Providence, to the Progress of the devouring Flames much sooner than our Fears suggested; as it is, much Substance has been lost, and several Families turned out of their Dwellings, but no Lives were lost.—It is melancholy to observe what a considerable Part of this Metropolis has been defolated, and how many new Objects of Charity have been created by these repeated Disasters; this being the third considerable Fire, besides the great one, which happened in this Town within the short Space of three Years.

The following Families, who lived in the Court, are by this terrible Accident now burnt out, viz. Mr. George Bray, Mr. John Popkins, Widow Salter, Mrs. Jane Day, Capt. Arthur Noble, Mr. Samuel Holbrook, Mr. Eph. Copeland, jun. Mr Benjamin Loring, Widow Gould, Mr. Jacob Thayer, and Mr. John Barker.

We hear from London that the Petition of the Sufferers in the Great Fire to his Majesty, has been graciously received, and we still flatter ourselves that they may in proper Time be recommended for Parliamentary Relief.

NEW-YORK, June 21.

Wednesday last the Harriot Snow Packet Boat, Captain Bonell, left this Port with the Mail for Falmouth.

The same Day eleven Sail of Transports arrived here from Martinico, in 20 Days Passage, having the Sick and Wounded, Officers and Soldiers on board from that Place, viz. the Lion (armed Transport) Capt. Manly, the True Briton, Black Prince, Elizabeth and Mary, Mary the Second, Two Brothers, Rachel, Ship James, Brig James, Hope, and the Fanny. Since which two others arrived here.

Another Fleet of Men of War and Transports are preparing for Sea, the Men embarking as fast as possible, but where bound is not yet publickly known.

Thursday Night last Capt. Mitchell arrived here from Jamaica; 27 Days before he came in, he met with, off Baracoa, the Fleet under the Command of Admiral Pocock, who a few Days before was joined by that under the Command of Sir James Douglass, from Jamaica, having on board 2000 Negro Soldiers; and from the Course they steered, he was pretty certain they were bound to the Havannah, from which Place, when he left them, he supposed them to be about 150 Leagues.

By Letters from South-Carolina we learn, that 30 Days ago War was not declared at Augustine against England; although they were very busy in fitting out Privateers to cruize against the English, no less than one Polacca, three Sloops, and two Schooners, being almost ready for the Sea; and that 2 Sloops and 2 Men of War, having 3000 Land Forces on board, lately arrived there from the Havannah.

PHILADELPHIA, June 24.

Yesterday was launched by Messieurs THOMAS and JAMES PENROSE, the Privateer HERO, a Ship of 95 Feet Keel, and 32 Feet Beam, and mounts Twenty-four Nine-pounders on one Deck. She has been on the Stocks only Seventy-three Days, and is reckoned the finest Vessel, for that Purpose, that ever was built in America.

An Extract of a Letter from St. Pierre, in Martinico, dated May 14, 1762.

"We had a most terrible Earthquake last Night, tho' no Damage has been done; it consisted of three Shocks, each less severe than the other, and at about Half an Hour's Distance—I did not quit my Bed, though almost thrown out of it by the first Shock, which awoke me, and was very terrible, on Account of the strange rumbling Noise which accompanied it; the Earth trembled violently for five Minutes after it, while the Noise gradually died away: All the French quit their Houses. I do not exaggerate, when I compare the first Shock of my House to a Chair being pushed violently from you, and as violently drawn back; every Beam in it cracked; but as the House is of Wood, I thought it safer to be still, and depend on the Bed-posts, than to endeavour at an Escape, for I had no Hopes that the Houses would not fall."

The Brigantine Little Bob, from Maryland for Cork, was lost on the Irish Coast,

On Monday last Captain Green (late Commander of a Ship from London to Boston) come to Town from Virginia. He failed in Company with the London Ships that lately arrived here, but was taken, off the Banks of Newfoundland, by a French Frigate from Brest, said to be designed for this Coast. The Day after Capt. Green was taken a light Snow for Virginia was also taken by the same Frigate, and ransomed for Three Hundred Pounds Sterling, into which the Prisoners were put, and the Vessel proceeded for Virginia. Captain Green's Cargo was said to be worth Thirty Thousand Pounds Sterling.

Yesterday arrived here Captain Long from New-Providence, by whom there is no particular Account of Admiral Pocock's Fleet; but that it was generally thought it was before the Havannah.

ANNAPOLIS, July 1.

Tuesday last, after a long Drought, we had several very refreshing Showers of Rain: In the Afternoon it was accompanied with a high Wind, Lightning and Thunder. The Lightning struck a tall Sycamore Tree near a Gentleman's House in Town, and split out a small piece from the Top to the Root.

Several Vessels are arrived here from the West-Indies since our last; but none of them bring us any Advices from Cuba.

The Chesterfield Man of War was not arrived in Hampton Road about Five Days ago.
